Dear Mr. Akagi,

Reference a query made sometime ago by Mr. Hashizumi on behalf of Manchukuo Authorities as to the arrival here from Mukden of Dr. Simpson, a British doctor attached to Mukden Hospital, I informed Mr. Hashizumi that I was reluctant to give him the names of the friends or guarantors of Dr. Simpson until I had the consent of these gentlemen to do so.

Mr. Hashizumi put forward the rather peculiar argument that if I refused, his report to Manchukuo would perhaps be an adverse one.

I have now obtained the consent of the friends concerned and forward hereunder their names for transmission to the Consulate. I find that Dr. Simpson is a man of repute and very highly spoken of locally.

Subject Dr. C.F. SIMPSON - movements of.

Made by D.S. Hocking Forwarded by Inspector E Payne

Dr. C.F. SIMPSON, concerning whom assistance was rendered to the Japanese Consular Police on 26-8-38, departed from Shanghai on the morning of August 30, taking passage to England aboard the P.& O. liner "Corfu". During his stay in Shanghai (August 26 to 30), Dr. Simpson resided at the Palace Hotel; his movements were normal and gave no indication that he might have been in Shanghai for any other reason than to await the sailing of the s.s. "Corfu". It is learned that he is at present on long leave which he intends to spend in England.

For the past 19 or 20 years Dr. Simpson has been connected with the Mukden Hospital and is a recognized authority on affairs in Manchoukuo generally. It is confidentially learned, that on account of the above reason he has, since 1935, been under constant surveillance of the Japanese Secret Service in Manchoukuo, who have caused him numerous hindrances in the form of petty obstacles placed in his path as regards his medical work.

The undersigned, accompanied by D.S. Kamashita, attended the arrival of the s.s. "Tsingtao Maru" at 3 p.m. on 26-8-38 at the D.K.K. Wharf, Yangtszepoo Road.

The subject of attention, Mr. Simpson, was met on disembarking by Mr. J.A. Bristow of the legal department of the Standard-Vacuum Oil Company and another middle-aged foreigner. Mr. Simpson's baggage was handled by Palace Hotel agents; he left the dock without delay and was driven to the Palace Hotel in motor car No.172 (registered with the Standard-Vacuum Oil Company) accompanied by Mr. Bristow and his companion. Enquiries revealed that Mr. Simpson booked room No.520 at the Palace Hotel, without meals, and gave no indication of the possible length of his stay.

A general description of Mr. Simpson is as follows: Quiet appearance, height about 5 feet 7 inches, slight build, greying hair, reddish moustache, wearing a dark worsted suit and a grey soft felt hat. The following details concerning Mr. Simpson are given on the ship's passenger list;

REPORT

Subject: Police Assistance requested by the Japanese Consular Police regarding a British subject named C.N. Simpson.

Made by: D. S. Kamashita Forwarded by: [illegible] D.S.P.

At 11.40 a.m. today, Mr. Hashizume, chancellor of the Japanese Consular Police, telephoned to the effect that a British subject named C.N. Simpson is due to arrive in Shanghai from Dairen on board the s.s. "Tsingtao Maru", which will berth at the D.K.K. Whangpoo Wharf, Yangtszepoo Road, during the afternoon of August 26. He is expected to reside at the Palace Hotel.

Mr. Hashizume further stated that he would be grateful if the Municipal Police would keep a careful watch on the movements of Simpson and furnish information regarding his movements in Shanghai to the Consular Police, because he is suspected by the Japanese authorities to be a communist agent.
